

Antonia Füller

Senior Associate // Rechtsanwältin

antonia.fueller@rothorn.legal m +49 151 70 60 30 76

rothorn legal Rechtsanwälte
Trittmann & Partner mbB
Wöhlerstraße 8-10
60323 Frankfurt am Main
Germany

Antonia Füller advises and represents clients in complex national and cross-border disputes before German courts and international arbitration tribunals as well as in out-of-court negotiations.

She has extensive experience in the field of banking and capital markets law. In addition, she specializes in matters of private international and civil procedure law and has deep expertise in the area of foreclosure and enforcement proceedings.

Before joining rothorn legal, Antonia Füller worked for three years in the Dispute Resolution department at PwC Legal in Berlin. There, she focused on advising and representing national and international clients from the financial sector both in court proceedings and in the area of general terms and conditions and contract drafting.

Her working languages are German and English, she reads French.

Experience (Excerpt)

- Representing a company in litigation with a bank in connection with loan and commission claims
- Advising an investor with respect to the cross-border enforcement of a DIS arbitration award against a Romanian renewable energy company
- Representing and advising a global manufacturer of wind turbines in various court proceedings regarding possible warranty and guarantee claims
- Representing a foreign investment fund in the granting and securing of real estate loans as well as representation in the assertion of possible claims in foreclosure and insolvency proceedings
- Representing several credit institutions in model determination proceedings
- Advising various credit institutions on issues relating to the drafting of general terms and conditions and contracts, as well as on legal risk assessment in the context of annual audits and the formation of provisions
- Representing the insolvency administrator of a German company in the assertion of claims for restitution under loan law
- Advising in the context of a due diligence in the area of building society contracts

Qualifications

- Attorney at law, Germany
- Legal clerkship and second state examination at the Berlin Court of Appeals, Germany, including a traineeship in Geneva
- University and private lecturer for civil law and the law of civil procedure
- Research assistant and lecturer at the Humboldt University of Berlin, Germany
- Studies and First Legal Examination at the Albert-Ludwigs-University Freiburg, Germany

Publications

- Comment on the Opinion of the Advocate General at the ECJ dated 16.02.2023 - C-520/21, EWIR 2023, 289 (with Dr. Saskia Merle)

